Headline:
Increasingly bright or sunny during the day. Winds light.

Today:
A cloudy start. However, bright or sunny spells are likely to develop through the morning across Moray, then Aberdeenshire in the afternoon. Winds light and variable in direction. Maximum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Tonight:
Quite a lot of clear skies in land around upper Deeside but cloudier towards Aberdeen and the Moray coast, possibly some drizzle here too. Minimum temperature -2 deg C (28 deg F).

Tuesday:
Feeling cold and quite cloudy at times with very light winds, drizzly at times around northern Aberdeenshire. Maximum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Turning increasingly cold towards the end of the week. Some rain on Thursday, mainly light. Possibly some wintry showers on Friday fed in on stronger northeasterly winds.
